Activity 2: Additional benefits of being an apprentice

Apprenticeships
National Apprenticeship Week
4 to 8 March 2019

Did you know that lots of companies offer exciting benefits and rewards to their apprentices?

There are many incredible companies that offer their apprentices different discount schemes and benefits. From discounted gym membership to a day off for your birthday.

Link up the benefit to the employer using an arrow. Careful, some are not as obvious as you may think! If you get stuck please ask your teacher for a clue...

Benefit	Brand
An onsite dentist means you don't have to waste valuable holidays to attend an appointment.	Coca-Cola European Partners
Fully expensed company car where required. As well as rewards and tickets to events such as the Olympics and World Cup.	IBM
You get a day off for your birthday, as well as a lunch allowance.	Google
Exclusive holiday and travel discounts, including great foreign exchange and discounted travel insurance.	Bentley
Up to 75% discount on season tickets. You can also get 5 extra days leave to volunteer for a charity per year.	Capgemini
Each employee has at least 40 hours a year that they can dedicate to giving back to the community.	TUI
Take part in an 'outward bound' course – an exhilarating week in Snowdonia kayaking, climbing and trekking.	sky
Discounted membership at many high-street gyms. A rewards package including mobile phones and travel season tickets.	Your London Airport Gatwick
300 offices in 40 countries around the world. You'll have the opportunity to travel or work in different locations.	KPMG
Down-time areas including games rooms and fully equipped recording studio.	Network Rail