Apprenticeships: A subject snapshot guide for teachers

What is an apprenticeship?

Apprentices are employed in a job and paid a salary, whilst undertaking training to support the development of their skills. Apprentices will spend at least 20% of their paid time completing 'off-the-job' training where they will be supported by a training provider to achieve their apprenticeship. Apprenticeships are available to anyone over the age of 16, living in England and have no upper age limit. To find more please visit the government website:

Which apprenticeships are there?

Business Studies links to lots of apprenticeships because so many job roles require an individual to support the organisation of a company and help it run effectively. Some of the more obvious job roles might be Business Administrator or Team Leader. But have you also thought about how Business Studies might link to other jobs like Data Analyst, Project Manager, HR Consultant, Chartered Legal Executive, Junior Estate Agent, Licensed Conveyancer and Solicitor?
