Apprenticeships: A subject snapshot guide for teachers

What is an apprenticeship?

Apprentices are employed in a job and paid a salary, whilst undertaking training to support the development of their skills. Apprentices will spend at least 20% of their paid time completing 'off-the-job' training where they will be supported by a training provider to achieve their apprenticeship. Apprenticeships are available to anyone over the age of 16, living in England and have no upper age limit. To find more please visit the government website:

Which apprenticeships are there?

Drama and Music link to lots of apprenticeships because so many jobs require an individual to have confidence, teamwork and collaboration skills, time management and self-discipline. Some of the more obvious job roles might be Recording Engineer and Broadcast Production Assistant, but have you also thought about how it might link to other jobs like Community Arts Administrator, Broadcast Technology, Live Event Rigger, Creative Venue Technician and Junior Journalist?

Which apprenticeship employers are there?

There are lots of employers offering apprenticeships that link to Drama and Music. Some of the biggest names you might recognise are:

The Telegraph
