

TURN YOUR PASSION FOR MUSIC INTO A CAREER

ARMY MUSICIAN AT THE ROYAL CORPS OF ARMY MUSIC

WHY JOIN?

PERFORM AT FAMOUS, HIGH-PROFILE EVENTS ALL OVER THE WORLD.

- A salaried and pensionable music career, with promotion opportunities.
- Combine a love of music with the sport and adventurous training the Army offers.
- Play everything from military marching music to jazz and contemporary.
- Join us and spend your days rehearsing and developing music alongside like-minded people.
- If you want to study music at university before joining, we could sponsor you £9,250 a year.

“ I get to travel the world performing music at amazing venues and to incredible audiences, more than I could ever dream of!
- David, Army clarinet player ”

“ The opportunities to travel, whether playing or on adventurous training, are vast and something I plan to use as much as I can. I have been passionate about music my whole life and joined the Army to turn my hobby into a career.
- Dissan, Army euphonium player ”

WHAT YOU NEED TO JOIN

YOU'LL NEED TO PASS AN AUDITION.

You'll play two pieces of music and complete a sight reading and music theory test. You will also need to pass all standard Army entrance requirements.

SALARY AND BENEFITS

START EARNING OVER £20,000 AFTER BASIC TRAINING.

You could also gain qualifications in performance, conducting and more, including subsidised Bachelors / Masters degrees, diplomas from the Associated Board Royal Schools of Music and BTEC Level 2 Qualification in Music.

“ I joined the Army as a musician at 16 as it ticked all the boxes for me, everything that I ever wanted in a career. My family have been really supportive and look forward to all the gigs that I have coming up in the future.
- Caitlin, Army bassoon player ”

